Dear Ralph:

Thank you so much for your note and honorarium. I appreciated so much your thoughtfulness and especially the time you took to write regarding my Sunday afternoon visit with the young people of the Dallas area.

Thank you for the leadership that you and your fellow elders provided for this particular meeting. I thoroughly enjoyed the opportunity of meeting your daughter, as well as others in the congregation. I appreciated the openness that I sensed in the Western Heights congregation and hope that you will experience great blessing from God because of your faith.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk

Dear John

Many thanks for speaking at our youth rally - It was well done.

Hope to visit with you in Abilene sometime - My brother Francis teaches & my daughter does twirls for the ACC Band.

When our age group came home from W.W.II we were privileged to have a man of your thinking & stature teach us - Ed Craddock - also of Tenn. Thanks again Sincerely
Ralph
